Statesboro, Ga., Friday, Oct. 10, 1902

Even the Kings of Europe envy the financial prosperity of J. Pierpont Morgan.

One hour's work killed a negro brick mason in Savannah. There are others who could not endure the thought of work so long.—Macon News.

Gov. Candler will soon step out, and Gov. Terrell will step in, and thus the government rolls on.

It is probable that free coal will be the battle cry in the north this fall.

The Republicans are troubled over the political outlook, with a great strike on, and a hard winter at hand. This may be the year for the Democrats to win.

The state legislature convenes on the fourth Wednesday in this month, and the wise men will all gather in Atlanta.

The election for congressmen comes on Tuesday after the first Monday in Nov.

Candler's Successor.

Atlanta, Oct. 6.—Some speculation is being indulged in as to the successor of Judge John S. Candler on the bench of the Stone Mountain circuit. Court officials here look upon Judge L. S. Roun of Fairburn as likely to be the appointee. Others prominently spoken of for the position are Judge C. Smith, of Decatur, and Judge Charles Rogers of Covington. Judge Candler will not go on the Supreme bench before Nov. 1, and will continue to hold court up to that time.—Morning News.

LAXATIVE CHOCOLATES cure Chronic Constipation and liver troubles. Pleasant to take. Paralytic vegetable. Guaranteed by S. J. Crouch.

Jim Woodward, Atlanta's ex-mayor, was a candidate in the recent primary. He wanted to be vindicated and was defeated by nearly 1,000 votes. It is to Atlanta credit that he was defeated.—Ex.

Will Make Affidavit

New Lease of Life for an Iowa Postmaster.

Postmaster R. H. Randall, Dunlap, Ia., says: I suffered from indigestion and eating evils for years. Finally I tried Kodol. I soon knew I had found what I had long looked for. I am better today than in years. Kodol gave me a new lease of life. Anyone can have my affidavit to the truth of this statement. Kodol digests your food. This enables the system to assimilate supplies, strengthening every organ and restoring health.

Kodol Makes You Strong. Prepared only by E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. Each bottle contains 25 times the 50c. size. For sale by W. H. ELLIS.

Wood's Seeds.

Vetches.

THE HARRY WINTER or SANDYBETCH makes a hay or forage crop superior in feeding and nutritive qualities to Timothy Hay. It will also make the largest yield of dry feed of any crop that can be sown in the fall. In this respect it is superior to Crimson Clover as it not only makes a larger yield than that crop, but is very much superior in feeding qualities. Wood's Fall Catalogue tells all about Seeds for Fall Planting. Seed Wheat, Oats, Rye, Barley, Vetches, Grass and Clover Seeds, etc.

Write for Catalogue and prices of any seeds desired.

T. W. WOOD & SONS,
Seedsmen, Richmond, Va.

Wood's Fall Catalogue also tells about Vegetable and Flower Seeds, Strawberry and Vegetable Seed, Beans, Peas, Potatoes, Turnips, etc. Catalogue mailed free upon request.

The great money nabobs own the coal mines, and also the railroads, as well as everything else. Questions like national ownership of railroads, coal mines, oil wells, telegraphs etc., which are now accounted foolish, will be burning ones in the years to come. People will stand lots of robbing, but get tired of it after a while.

The Association.

The Primitive Baptist Association meets to-day at Middle Ground four miles south of Statesboro. For many years the meetings of the associations have brought together thousands of people, and they are changed each year. There will be great crowds at Middle Ground tomorrow and Sunday, and many of the town folks will be on hand.

November Election.

On Tuesday Nov. 4th, elections will be held all over the U. S. for members of congress. The polls will be open at the various districts in Bulloch, and the Democrats should turn out and give Hon. Rufus E. Lester a good vote. Only those who have registered this year can vote in the election, but there are about 2000 of those and they should take the trouble to cast their votes. Remember the day.

Contests Announced.

Atlanta, Oct. 6.—Gov. Candler has received notice of contests in the matter of county officers from Twiggs, Douglas and Wilcox counties. In these counties there is a contest for almost every county officer, including the legislature. The legislative contests will, of course, have to go before the house of representatives. In Wilcox county, the contest grows out of the old fight over the location of the court house, the contesting towns being Abbeville and Rochelle.—Morning News.

Supreme Court Opens.

Atlanta, Oct. 6.—The October term of the Supreme Court opened this morning, argument being heard by a full bench of justices. Associate Justice Samuel B. Adams is a member of the first division, with Justice Simmons and Associate Justice Fish. Presiding Justice Lumpkin and Associate Justice Little and Cobb constitute the second division. Argument will be heard each morning and the afternoons will be devoted to consultation.—Morning News.

QUESTION ANSWERED.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers' and grandmothers' never thought of using anything else for indigestion, biliousness, doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard Appendicitis, Nervous prostration or Heart failures, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing so reliable as this remedy at W. H. Ellis'.

JERSEY COWS.

I have just received a car load of fine Jersey milk cows. If you need one call and see me.

Buy nothing but the best Double Diamond Belting and Gin Wrapping. For sale by, J. G. Blitch & Co.

Mess. S. J. Williams, J. L. Oliff, and Dr. B. L. Sample returned on Thursday evening from a pleasant trip to Suwanee Springs Fla. They all report a good time.

Last Saturday was another big day in Statesboro. One of the leading merchants told us that it was the biggest day's trade he had ever had since he had been in business.

SIEBALD STREET.

The city fathers and the Ordinary, and Mr. J. W. Oliff have agreed on a new street running from East Main street towards the jail on Hill street. It is to be opened up soon, and in memory of George Siebald who in 1802 donated the lands here for a county seat, the street will be named "Siebald street."

Some sneak who ought to be in the chaingang is engaged in poisoning dogs in this community. Several parties have had good dogs killed. Dr. Quattlebaum had a fine puppy killed. A piece of beef was found in the yard with a lot of strychnine in it and his dog dead. It is one of the meanest tricks a man can be guilty of throwing poison in a man's yard. Dr. Quattlebaum says that he has another fine bird dog and a fine blooded puppy. He says he don't intend to be outdone by them.

Got In Trouble.

To show what advertising will do for a man who follows it. Mr. L. A. Wise put a small ad in the News about 2 months ago offering his farm for sale. He thought at that time that he was going to Oklahoma. His advertisement was answered and his price offered, he went up $100 in the price and that was met and the papers fixed.

Now Mr. Wise has decided that Bulloch is good enough for him, and don't want to part with his farm, but he has got in trouble by placing it on the market through the News.

Mr. Akins Dead.

Mr. Lewis Akins known as (Bob) a highly respected citizen died at his home about 4 miles from town on Friday night. Mr. Akins was about 70 years of age and had lived near here all his life. The remains were interred at Bethlehem on Saturday morning.

Wanted A Farm.

I am in the market for a good farm I want to buy about 100 acres with 50 acres in cultivation. If you have good land and write me if not save your postage stamp.

Respectfully,
D. H. Barr Portal, Ga.

JERSEY COWS.

Another car load of Jersey and Durham cows will be received on Saturday of this week. If you want a good cow come around and see me.

W. T. Smith.

Public Sale.

On Saturday October 25th, at my place at Register I will sell to the highest bidder one lot of farming implements, hogs, cows, etc. also one Jersey wagon. If you need anything in this line don't fail to come on that day.

Respectfully,
F. P. Register.

The Cotton Market.

The cotton market shows very little change since last week. The ruling prices for sea island are 17 1/2 to 18c. The receipts have been pretty heavy for the past week.

WILL MOVE TO FLORIDA.

The many friends of Mr. F. P. Register will regret to learn that he is going to leave us. He informs us that he has bought about 3000 acres of pine timbered lands near Ft. Meade Fla. where he will engage extensively in the manufacture of naval stores. He has sold his business at Register to Mr. B. O. Wood who will continue the business. Mr. Register's family will leave on Nov. 1st for Bartow Fla. where they will reside in the future.

Several of our colored farmers are doing well and making good crops, the working negro is all right.

The insurance agents are as thick as cotton pickers.

A GEORGIAN IN OKLAHOMA TERRITORY.

To the Editor of the Journal: As the readers of the best paper in the south would probably like to know something of the Oklahoma-Territory, I will attempt to describe it to them in its true light. Oklahoma had a population of 10,087 people when the last census was taken, now having 22,000 people, and this is the largest city in the territory.

A street car track has been laid here and the cars will be running in about 95 days. The streets are now being paved. The buildings erected in the business part of the town are a credit to any city.

Farms can be bought here fairly cheap and the land is very good. You can raise about 30 bushels to the acre, 30 bushels of corn, 70 bushels to 100 bushels of oats, about 1,000 pounds of cotton in the seed—in fact, you can raise anything that we can in Georgia, except ribbon cane, and I have never seen a healthier country. Farms can be bought here anywhere from a thousand dollars up. The most remarkable thing about the farming industry here is the cattle raising. You sow your wheat in September or October. After it comes up, you put your stock in on to keep it eaten down; this to keep it from growing too rank and you either have to do this or use a mower to keep it cut down. Hence you can raise, fatten and winter your stock, keep them on there until the middle of March, and also make the fine wheat crops.

The houses on the farms are not as good as the Georgia houses, as a general thing. Occasionally you will find a fine house in the country, but mostly you will find two or three room houses. The water is good but you go deep for it—that is from 30 to 60 feet.

The Africans are few along ways apart, and this alone is enough for a Georgian to never want to return to his native state. Politically the place is about evenly divided but will go Democratic forever here afterwards.

Labor is high here, but you do not need labor on the farm but very little as the farmers here seem to be reasonable enough to let cotton alone. A man can come to this country with 1,000 to invest and make money, but it is a poor place for a man with no money to come to. The people are kind and friendly. The main section of the country here have a rural mail delivery.

Alfalfa does well in this country. Mr. E. S. Young, five miles from this city, gathered 56.00 worth to the acre from fifty acres, so you see there is more money in that than there is in cotton.

The city property advances as the town grows and the town grows fast. Anyone desiring information about this country, I will be pleased to give it. Just drop me a few lines and let me know what is wanted.

J. E. Parker.
—Atlanta Journal—

The veterans failed to have a meeting on Monday, only a few were here.

President Cecil Gabblett of the Savannah & Statesboro Railway, spent one day this week in this city.

Attention is called to the card of the sale of the old Methodist church, which will be sold to the highest bidder on next Thursday. It will have to be moved out in ten days, to make room for the handsome new brick edifice which is to take its place.

FOR SALE.

Two well improved places, one mile from Blitch, Ga., containing nine hundred acres, well improved and well stocked with cattle and hogs. All buildings in good condition. Will sell stock and all. One hundred acres in cultivation. Write or call upon John Coleman, Blitch Ga.

"Lyle-Improved-Frictionless-Roller-Hay-Press."

SIDE VIEW—IN POSITION TO OPERATE.

The above cut represents the "LYLE-IMPROVED-FRCTIONLESS-ROLLER HAY-PRESS," (Patented) Financial Salvation, especially designed to meet the requirements of the farmer in baling Hay, Oats, Rye, Pea vines, Shredded Corn, Shucks, Straw, etc., putting same into marketable shape, increasing barn capacity and decreasing waste.

This press will bale all the material the operators can bring to it and as fast as they can feed it. Our plan of power leaves a good pause between strokes, giving time for compact feeds. Power is the most unique and effective that can be applied, being gradually multiplied as strain increases.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The noted scientist who has just elected to "make a plea for snakes" is gently reminded of the fact that the fewer the snakes, real and imaginary, the more popular his plea will be.

While nearly every municipality in America owns its sewerage system, only a little more than one-half own their water supply, only an eighth own even partial electric lighting plants, few own gas works, only one owns a steam railway and only one a street railway. Municipal ownership of public utilities makes slow headway in spite of its extensive discussion.

An amazing specimen of humanity in Hoboken, N. J., out of work and in the direct poverty, pawned the coat off his back, the only coat he had, in order to get money to pay for two dog licenses and get his pet out of the pound. The passionate devotion of many unfortunate victims of destitution and misery to worthless mope and cure is not infrequent. Dogs and owners find a fellow feeling in distress.

Railroad building is far from being at a standstill in the United States. During the first six months of this year 2214 miles of new road have been built, which brings the total railway mileage in the country, says the Railroad Age, to 291,839 miles. The record of railroad building during the current year is 500 miles ahead of that of last year, so far. Most of the new construction is taking place in the southern and southwestern states.

United States capital to the amount of $25,000,000 is now invested in Alaska, and that does not include the very heavy investments in transportation lines. That territory takes from the states about $12,000,000 of merchandise every year, and since she came to us has paid to our merchants and manufacturers fully $100,000,000, while she has sent to us in furs, fish, seal products and gold fully $150,000,000. In view of these figures, the purchase price of $7,200,000, appears almost ridiculously small.

Municipal ownership is the order of the day in Düsseldorf, Germany. This city is a model city on the Rhine river, and the authorities are always on the alert to look after the well-being of the citizens. There is an electric street railway system that is most satisfactory, for cheap fares and good service are given. The city owns large water, gas and electric light and power works. The harbor is under municipal control. There are excellent schools, parks, clean streets, a municipal theatre and an art gallery.

An adult suffrage bill passed both houses of the Australian Commonwealth parliament and is now law. Under it all adults, without regard to sex, have the right to vote for members to Parliament in the six provinces constituting the federation, and it carries with it the right to sit in parliament if elected. Woman has thus been put on a political equality with man throughout the commonwealth. It is believed to be the first case on record where an entire federation has enfranchised all its women, and the experiment will be keenly watched everywhere.

You can tell the city man that a camera operates by a simple pressure of a button. He will leave the "rest" to you. As a rule he knows nothing whatever of mechanics—couldn't wield a hammer with any precision, couldn't comprehend a technical description or a diagram if you gave him one, and doesn't care to, ordinarily. Make the camera practical; that is all he asks. When it is out of gear he takes it to the repair shop around the corner. But the farmer wants to know all about the process of making a picture, and all about the mechanism that accomplishes the feat. He has a mechanical sense that is utterly lacking in city folks. Things must be advertised largely from the mechanical side, and very little can be left to you. That is why the meaningless diagrams of eggs, wheels, levers and working parts in farm journals, declares Printers' Ink. The farmer understands them, is interested in them, and insists upon having them.

STATEMENT OF OPERATORS.

President Beer Voices the Unanimous Sentiment of Coal Barons at Washington Conference.

The statement by George F. Beer, president of the conference held in Washington, was in part as follows:

To the President of the United States: We understand your anxiety as forcibly expressed in the statement you read to this morning to bring about an immediate resumption of operations in the coal mines in some such way as will, without a day's unnecessary delay, meet the crying needs of the people.

"You distinctly say that you do not intend a discussion of your respective claims and positions. But we assume a statement of what is going on in the coal regions will not be irrelevant. We represent the owners of coal mines in Pennsylvania. There are from fifteen to twenty thousand men at work mining and preparing coal. They are abused, assaulted, injured and maltreated by the United Mine Workers. They can work only under the protection of armed guards. Thousands of other workmen are deterred from working by the intimidation, violence and crimes inaugurated by the United Mine Workers, over whom John Mitchell, whom you invited to meet you, is chief.

"I need not picture the daily crimes committed by the members of this organization. The 'domestic tranquility' which every constitution declares is the chief object of government does not exist in the coal regions. There is a terrible reign of lawlessness and crime there. Every effort is made to prevent the mining of coal, and when mined Mitchell's men dynamite bridges and tracks, mob trainmen and by all major violence to prevent its shipment to relieve the public.

"The constitution of Pennsylvania guarantees protection to life and property. It expressly forbids the right of acquiring, possessing and defending property 'to be inalienable.' 'When riot and anarchy too great to be appeased by the civil power occur, the governor of Pennsylvania is bound to call out the state troops to suppress it. He must fearlessly use the whole power of the state to protect life and property, and to establish peace—not an immoral, but every man at work, and going to and from work. He has sent troops to the coal regions. Gradually the power of the law is asserting itself. Untrue encouragement by false hopes, order will soon be restored, and then we can mine coal to meet the public wants.

"The duty of the hour is not to waste time negotiating with the defiance of law, but to do as was done in the war of the rebellion—restore the majesty of law, the only guardian of a free people, and to re-establish order and peace at any cost.

Government a Failure.

"The government is a contemptible failure if it can protect the lives and property and secure the comfort of the people by only compromising with the violators of law and the instigators of violence and crime.

"Just now it is more important to teach ignorant men dwelling among us, misled and used as tools by citizens of other states, that at whatever cost and inconvenience to the public, Pennsylvania will use the whole power of government to protect not only the man who wants to work, but his wife and children while he is at work, and to punish every man who, by instigation or by overt acts, attempts to deprive any man of his liberty to work.

Under these conditions we decline to accept Mr. Mitchell's consideration offer to let our men work on terms he names.

"He has no right to come from Illinois to dictate terms on the ill-named of which anarchy and crime shall cease in Pennsylvania. He must stop his people from killing, maiming and abusing Pennsylvania citizens, and from destroying property. He must stop it because it is unlawful and not because of any bargain with us.

"We will add to our offer 'to continue the wages existing at the time of the strike and to take up at each colliery and adjust any grievance' this further condition: If the employers and employees at any particular colliery cannot reach a satisfactory adjustment of any alleged grievance, it shall be referred to the judges of the court of common pleas of the district in which the colliery is situated for final determination.
